

Press Release

Samyama by John Ang's "Local Goes Global" fashion show showcases Malaysia's vibrant textile scene's potential to thrive internationally. Celebrating heritage while embracing modern trends, Samyama demonstrates how local traditions can evolve into global fashion statements.

The fashion show will feature 28 outfits tailored from contemporary sarees acquired from textile shops around Semua House. reflect John's passion for fusing the latest Indian prints with innovative silhouettes of traditional Malay attire.

The collection, styled and designed under the direction of John Ang in collaboration with Rumah Hartiga and Salikin Sidek, pushes towards the boundaries of tradition to achieve a functional, chic, and elegant look.

Prices range from RM 800 to RM 3,000.

Local Goes Global

Time: 2:00 pm

Venue: Semua House B1

Date: 10th Nov 2025

This show is in conjunction with John's ongoing exhibition - Limar and Sangkat - Textiles That Link the Malay World also at Semua House sponsored by Think City, KL Creative , DBKL and House